A word from the President

It is with great pleasure that we present the 2011 Annual Report. Each year, we ask you to make an investment in the Museum – which you do in countless ways – through your Membership, by supporting the Annual Appeal, perhaps by making a gift to the collection, funding a special project or by volunteering. The following pages represent the return on that investment. We hope that this report provides new insight into our activities and a better understanding of how your support is maximized.

We are an evolving institution with a distinguished past and a promising future. We are committed to sharing the Cape Ann story by growing and caring for the collection, by creating opportunity and by contributing to our communities. We cannot do this work without you and we cannot thank you enough.

John Cunningham, President

HIGHLIGHTS OF 2011

Visitors

The Museum welcomed almost 20,000 visitors in 2011.

Programs and Education

Program attendance and the number of programs offered increased. The Hopper House Walks, the Margaret Fitzhugh Browne's Annisquam Walk, gallery tours, White-Ellery House art installations, the Conversations with Contemporary Artists series and the popular Music in the Courtyard program drew crowds.

More than 3,400 children and families attended the 126 programs designed specifically for them. We continued to concentrate on solidifying partnerships with public schools: The Young at Art for Head Start Program is flourishing, with support from the McCarthy Family Foundation and New England Biolabs. The Cape Ann Art History Curriculum project for high school students continued for a second year, receiving support from the Massachusetts Cultural Council, the Gloucester Education Foundation and the Jebediah Foundation. We plan to have a curriculum sourcebook completed by the end of 2012. And, we have begun working on a project to improve access to underserved children and adults in our communities with funds received from the Forest Foundation.

Collaborations

The Museum collaborated with more than 30 cultural and community institutions throughout the year. Collaborative borders were expanded as the Museum hosted the U.S. Department of Commerce's Economic Assessment Forum on Arts and Culture for the City of Gloucester; two visits organized by State Rep. Ann-Margaret Ferrante and State Rep. Sarah Peake, Chair of the Joint Committee on Tourism, Arts and Cultural Development; a program on Historic New England founder William Sumner Appleton to celebrate their anniversary; seART's Partner with an Artist Forum; a reception for Montserrat College of Art; and the Costume Society of America's Annual Meeting which highlighted the Folly Cove Designers Collection.

Bernard Chaet, Sunrise, undated. Oil on canvas. Gift of Ninon Lacey and Bernard Chaet, 2011. [Accession # 2011.40]

Capital Improvements

We completed the roof replacement above the 1960s wing at 27 Pleasant Street; repaired and reglazed the windows of the Captain Elias Davis House (1804) (grant-funded); upgraded the electrical system and installed a security system at the White-Ellery House (1710) (grant-funded);

continued stabilization work at the White-Ellery Barn, c. 1740 (grant-funded); and, the Cape Ann Park and Sculpture Garden was completed.

Technology

A point of sales system to facilitate admission and sales was installed; staff is currently cataloguing the collection using EmbARK, a new collections management program; website development continues with the launch of the new site planned for early summer 2012.

Operations

In line with the goals of our Strategic Plan (2010-2016) we have increased both the facilities management and curatorial assistant positions to full-time. Staff participated in a number of professional development opportunities in 2011, including the first Tadler Fellowship, funded by Board member Richard Tadler.

2011 MEMBERS

The Museum hosted a number of special events for members and friends in 2011:

The Captain's Party, the Museum's annual fundraising gala, celebrated with a lively island theme (above); Tavern Night at the White-Ellery House; The Fitz Henry Lane Society's annual October Art Excursion to Chicago, IL; the Women's 4th Annual Luncheon held in December; and, we hosted the first CAMafterhours event which welcomed a young demographic to the Museum for an evening of art, history and culture.

The Alfred Mansfield Brooks Society

Alfred Mansfield Brooks (1870-1963), long time president and curator of the Cape Ann Museum, was responsible for assembling what would ultimately become the largest and finest collection of works by marine artist Fitz Henry Lane (1804-1865). Today, the Museum's Lane Collection includes over 40 oil paintings and more than 100 pencil drawings. The fact that such a comprehensive group of works has remained in the artist's hometown is remarkable, a testament to Brooks' vision and foresight.

The Alfred Mansfield Brooks Society was established in 2009 to honor the generosity of Robert L. and Elizabeth French and their gifts to the Museum's collection and to serve as an acknowledgement of gratitude to the long line of donors who have shaped the Museum's collection. The Society recognizes those who have made donations of art or artifacts to the Museum, who have pledged a future gift, or who have provided funds for the purchase of such a minimum of $10,000 on or after September 2009.

A PERSONAL TRIBUTE

Joe Garland's lengthy relationship with the Cape Ann Museum was no different from his long love affair with the city of Gloucester. He was demanding, generous, fractious, caring, passionate, jealous, protective, intensely annoying and unshakably honest. Sometimes we "made him sleep on the couch," and sometimes he'd stomp out vowing never to return. We always made up eventually, and as much as he gave us as scholar and historian over many long years, he received from us in equal measure, freely given by the longtime institutional guardian of Cape Ann's precious and perishable past. We miss him deeply and are as deeply grateful every time we find a mark of his wisdom and knowledge on a document or photo in our collection. Rest in peace, good friend. We'll not forget you.
